BIO

Vanessa Elias is a mental health activist, certified parent coach, speaker, and writer featured in the WSJ, PBS, NPR, and in the NYT best seller Never Enough: When Achievement Culture Becomes Toxic—And What We Can Do About It. She is the founder of Thrive with a Guide, LLC and serves as a parent support group facilitator for the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). She was recently selected for The Aspen Institute's Weave Speakers Bureau. Vanessa founded Block Party USA as a cure for our country's loneliness, social isolation, divisiveness, and the youth mental health crisis.

EXPERIENCE

Thrive with a Guide, LLC, Wilton, CT — Founder and Principal

2019 - PRESENT

Specializing in whole-family synergy and well-being, Vanessa works with parents to problem solve, shift their lens, and develop actionable steps to change and improve life in their home. Services offered include one-on-one coaching, writer and columnist, workshop facilitator, panelist, and speaker.

Block Party USA, Wilton, CT — Founder

2023 - PRESENT

Founded Block Party USA as a cure for our country's loneliness, social isolation, divisiveness, and the youth mental health crisis. Block parties encourage free play for children, offer social connectedness, and cultivate a culture of showing up for one another in countless ways. When we get together face-to-face, we realize that we have more in common than we are different.

Vanessa's block party approach is featured as a powerful tool for positive change in Jennifer Wallace's NYT best seller Never Enough: When Achievement Culture Becomes Toxic—And What We Can Do About It, and in The Aspen Institute's Weave newsletter.

Vanessa met with Senator Chris Murphy and other community leaders to share her Block Party USA passion project to address the epidemic of loneliness and social isolation. Read more here.

National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI), CT — Parent Support Group Facilitator

2015 - PRESENT

Provide free support through monthly meetings and phone calls to parents and primary caregivers of children and adolescents with behavioral, emotional, and mental health concerns.

Vanessa talks about her work as a facilitator in this 2018 Wilton Bulletin article and as a featured speaker at the 2023 Connecticut Region 1 conference: Mental Health in a Post-Covid World: How to Ensure Emotional Health and Resilience in our Youth/Teens.

PURPOSE

Lead a culture shift of hope, connection, and action for individuals, families, and communities around the world.

EXPERIENCE (cont.)

Wilton Youth Council, Inc., Wilton, CT — President

2015 - 2019

Established the Wilton Youth Council as a trusted leader and sought-after resource for mental health advocacy and programming. Vanessa was named a "Wilton 25" in 2017, celebrating 25 extraordinary Wilton residents for their talent, entrepreneurial spirit, generosity, expertise, and philanthropy.

VOLUNTEER

Wilton Mental Health Task Force — Co-Founder and Lead

2022 - PRESENT

Build awareness of mental health needs, bring together the resources that already exist, and collaborate to expand current services. Task force members include clinicians, school administrators, and parents.

Kids In Crisis — Member, Programming Committee

2021 - PRESENT

Kids in Crisis provides emergency shelter, crisis counseling, and community education programs for children and families facing a crisis. The Kids In Crisis Helpline is staffed 24 hours a day with trained crisis counselors and provides free, confidential phone and face-to-face intervention, counseling, and referrals.

Wilton Coalition for Youth — Founding Member

2020 - PRESENT

Strengthen connections among organizations that serve Wilton youth and families. Coalition meetings are a forum for learning and sharing ideas. Expert speakers present information on timely topics and lead discussions about how member organizations can support those they serve.

Wilton Free Play Matters Task Force — Co-Founder and Co-Chair

2017 - PRESENT

Educate the community about the critical importance of free play and facilitate more free play opportunities for children of all ages. Testified in CT legislature in support of a bill to remove the threat of police or child protective services involvement when a child is enjoying unsupervised play.

Wilton Public Schools, Wilton, CT — Programming Liaison

2015 - PRESENT

Collaborations include district staff trainings, parenting workshops, and book groups with the superintendent, as well as Privileged and Pressured, a research-based collaboration that assessed the well-being of Wilton youth by Suniya Luthar, Ph.D. and was covered in national media.
